The Official MCU Film Slate

Volume 04 — locked in. We use the real MCU film slate: the same titles and release dates. The one structural change is a new Phase One Ant-Man in 2009, a year that had no MCU film in real life. Each film's story is still made 100% comic-accurate under Volumes 01 through 03.

The Ant-Man franchise is now four films: Ant-Man (2009, NEW) → Ant-Man (2015, film 2) → Ant-Man and the Wasp (2018, film 3) → Ant-Man and the Wasp: Quantumania (2023, film 4). The three later films keep their real titles and release dates and are now sequels to the 2009 film.

Phase One — 7 films

#	Film	US release	Notes
1	Iron Man	May 2, 2008	Paramount
2	The Incredible Hulk	June 13, 2008	Universal
3	Ant-Man	2009 (date TBD)	NEW — Ant-Man 1. Hank Pym and Janet van Dyne. Paramount.
4	Iron Man 2	May 7, 2010	Don Cheadle replaces Terrence Howard as Rhodey
5	Thor	May 6, 2011
6	Captain America: The First Avenger	July 22, 2011
7	The Avengers	May 4, 2012	The founding five assemble; Cap is found in the ice

Phase Two — 6 films

#	Film	US release	Notes
8	Iron Man 3	May 3, 2013
9	Thor: The Dark World	Nov 8, 2013
10	Captain America: The Winter Soldier	Apr 4, 2014
11	Guardians of the Galaxy	Aug 1, 2014
12	Avengers: Age of Ultron	May 1, 2015	Ends with Cap's Kooky Quartet as the new lineup
13	Ant-Man	July 17, 2015	Ant-Man 2. Scott Lang (Paul Rudd) becomes the second Ant-Man

Phase Three — 11 films

#	Film	US release	Notes
14	Captain America: Civil War	May 6, 2016
15	Doctor Strange	Nov 4, 2016
16	Guardians of the Galaxy Vol. 2	May 5, 2017
17	Spider-Man: Homecoming	July 7, 2017	Co-produced with Sony
18	Thor: Ragnarok	Nov 3, 2017
19	Black Panther	Feb 16, 2018
20	Avengers: Infinity War	Apr 27, 2018

#	Film	US release	Notes
21	Ant-Man and the Wasp	July 6, 2018	Ant-Man 3
22	Captain Marvel	Mar 8, 2019
23	Avengers: Endgame	Apr 26, 2019
24	Spider-Man: Far From Home	July 2, 2019	Co-produced with Sony

Phase Four — 7 films

#	Film	US release	Notes
25	Black Widow	July 9, 2021
26	Shang-Chi and the Legend of the Ten Rings	Sept 3, 2021
27	Eternals	Nov 5, 2021
28	Spider-Man: No Way Home	Dec 17, 2021	Co-produced with Sony
29	Doctor Strange in the Multiverse of Madness	May 6, 2022
30	Thor: Love and Thunder	July 8, 2022
31	Black Panther: Wakanda Forever	Nov 11, 2022

Phase Five — 6 films

#	Film	US release	Notes
32	Ant-Man and the Wasp: Quantumania	Feb 17, 2023	Ant-Man 4
33	Guardians of the Galaxy Vol. 3	May 5, 2023
34	The Marvels	Nov 10, 2023
35	Deadpool & Wolverine	July 26, 2024
36	Captain America: Brave New World	Feb 14, 2025
37	*Thunderbolts	May 2, 2025

Phase Six (in progress)

#	Film	US release	Notes
38	The Fantastic Four: First Steps	July 25, 2025
39	Spider-Man: Brand New Day	July 31, 2026	Co-produced with Sony
40	Avengers: Doomsday	Dec 18, 2026	Scheduled
41	Avengers: Secret Wars	Dec 17, 2027	Scheduled

Phase Six follows the real schedule and will be updated as the real slate changes. TV series, specials and shorts are in Volume 11.

Distribution (LOCKED)

Distribution follows real history, with Donohue in Disney's place.

Films	Distributor
Iron Man (2008), Ant-Man (2009), Iron Man 2 (2010), Thor (2011), Captain America: The First Avenger (2011)	Paramount Pictures, under Marvel's 2005 distribution deal. Thor and Captain America were already committed to Paramount before the Donohue purchase.
The Incredible Hulk (2008)	Universal Pictures
The Avengers (2012), Iron Man 3 (2013)	Donohue, after it buys their distribution rights back from Paramount in October 2010 (Disney paid about $115 million in real life). Paramount keeps a credit and a share of the profits.
Every Marvel Studios film from 2012 on	Donohue Studios Motion Pictures, Donohue's distribution arm (Disney's in real life)
Exception: solo Hulk films	Universal keeps the right to distribute any solo Hulk film, so as in real life, Amond's Hulk appears only in team-ups and other heroes' films.
Exception: Spider-Man films	Sony Pictures distributes the Spider-Man films, co-produced with Marvel Studios from Spider-Man: Homecoming (2017) on.

2009 Ant-Man: Locked Decisions

#	Topic	Locked decision
1	Release date	Friday, July 31, 2009. It's a quiet weekend, after Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince (July 15) and a week before G.I. Joe (August 7). It also lands one month before Donohue Entertainment's announcement that it's buying Marvel (the date Disney announced it in real life) on August 31, 2009, which makes the opening weekend a big storyline in the real-world story. The other option is Fox's X-Men Origins: Wolverine weekend (May 1, 2009) for a head-to-head rivalry storyline.
2	Director	Edgar Wright (born April 18, 1974; 32 today). In real life he and Joe Cornish had been developing Ant-Man since 2003, and Marvel officially named him director in 2006. In our story his film gets made first. His real 2014 exit from the 2015 film can then play out as the drama it really was, with Peyton Reed taking over film 2.
3	The Ant-Man handoff in 2015	In the comics, Hank Pym changes identities: Giant-Man in 1963, then Goliath and Yellowjacket. In 2015, Hank moves on to one of those identities and Scott Lang (Paul Rudd) inherits the Ant-Man suit. That keeps the 2015 film's real story and stays comic-accurate.
4	The Wasp, and Nadia van Dyne	Janet van Dyne stays the Wasp in all four films. Hope van Dyne is not used: she comes from a possible future (MC2), not the main comics, and her age doesn't fit our timeline. Nadia van Dyne takes her place, as in the main comics: Hank's daughter with his late first wife, Maria Trovaya, born about 2002 and raised in the Red Room, the same Soviet program that trained Black Widow. Hank never knew she existed. She is introduced in Ant-Man and the Wasp (2018), at about 16, and becomes the Unstoppable Wasp alongside Janet in Quantumania (2023). Played by Yara Shahidi (born February 10, 2000; 18 at the 2018 release).

Hank Pym and Janet van Dyne in Phase One

LOCKED CANON. Hank and Janet's appearances before The Avengers (May 4, 2012). The goal is the same build-up Tony Stark got: introduced, recruited, and woven into the shared world so audiences already know them when the founding five assemble.

Film	Appearance	What happens
Iron Man May 2, 2008	Janet: cameo Hank: mentioned	Janet van Dyne, a socialite heiress and fashion designer just as in the comics, banters with Tony at the Firefighters' Family Fund gala. She mentions "a scientist boyfriend you'd hate." That introduces her a year before her own film.
The Incredible Hulk June 13, 2008	Hank: mentioned	General Ross's files show that Dr. Henry Pym turned down an offer to weaponize his research for the military's super-soldier work. That sets up Hank's principles and his distrust of Ross. (Universal distributes this film, so a reference is enough.)
Ant-Man 2009	Lead roles	Their own origin film. Janet becomes the Wasp. In the post-credits scene, Nick Fury approaches them about the Avengers Initiative, mirroring Tony's scene at the end of Iron Man.
Iron Man 2 May 7, 2010	Supporting roles (several scenes)	Hank and Janet attend the Stark Expo as Avengers Initiative candidates. Tony and Hank have a science rivalry scene, which plants the friction that pays off later (see Ultron below). The Wasp has a short action beat in the Expo drone battle. Fury's and Natasha's evaluations of the candidates include them.
Thor May 6, 2011	Easter egg only	S.H.I.E.L.D. uses equipment shrunk with Pym Particles at the Mjolnir crash site. Hank and Janet don't appear, so Thor's introduction stays focused on her.
Captain America: The First Avenger July 22, 2011	None	This film stays a pure WWII story that ends with Steve frozen in the ice. Hank and Janet are part of the team that finds him in The Avengers.

Planting Ultron, comic-accurately (locked): in the comics, Hank Pym creates Ultron (The Avengers #54-55, 1968), and Ultron then builds the Vision. In Avengers: Age of Ultron (2015), Ultron is Hank's creation, not Tony's. Hank's guilt over it leads him to give up the Ant-Man suit, which is how Scott Lang inherits it in Ant-Man (July 17, 2015). The Tony-Hank rivalry in Iron Man 2 is the first step on that road.